Where Senior Life Happens

Resident Spotlight!

Ellen Earth

Meet Ellen Earth! Born in New Jersey, she spent her early years in Greece during the war before returning to the U.S. at age nine. Ellen began her career as a teletypist in the corporate world but later discovered her passion for the food service industry, believing that waitressing is a career of its own worth. An avid traveler, she once road-tripped across the country when gas was just 25 cents a gallon. Ellen also enjoys reading and highly recommends the works of Barbara Kingsolver. We are delighted to have her as part of our community.
