CITYVIEW

Where You Live Matters

RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

JUDITH B.

Judith is originally from New York, and while there, she worked in Family Court with delinquent girls. In this job, she learned what to watch out for when raising her own two daughters. She and her husband moved to Los Angeles in the late 70's with their two children, and she became a publicist representing art galleries and various personalities. Her husband worked at one of the Hollywood studios and so they were able to travel a lot. She is so content living here at CityView and appreciates the residents and the staff here! It is better than any expectation she had of what Assisted Living could be.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

SAMANTHA R. Server

Samantha has been working at CityView for about a year now. She was born and raised here in Los Angeles, and is the youngest of three children. In her time off from working here, Samantha stays busy teaching young children at a local preschool. Samantha possesses a very helping and kind nature, and because of that, she loves working at CityView assisting all our residents and socializing with them. When she's not working at either job, Samantha likes painting and drawing.

Making Great Memories!
