Resident Spotlight

JUDY BROOKS

Judy has called CityView home for the past few years. She grew up in Long Island, New York, and later attended Adelphi University, where she majored in sociology.

Judy worked for five years in family court social work in New York City, supporting delinquent girls. She also wrote an entertainment column for a newspaper under the name Robin Adams Sloan.

She loves sushi, enjoys listening to the Bee Gees, classical music, and Frank Sinatra, and appreciates the beautiful Los Angeles weather. Judy is known for her great sense of humor and enjoys making people laugh.

Her favorite holiday is Thanksgiving because she loves the food, gratitude, and time spent with others.

JUNE HOLIDAYS AND OBSERVANCES

- 6.19 - Juneteenth
- 6.21 - Father's Day

What do you call a line of men waiting to get haircuts? A barberqueue.

A kid decided to burn his house down. His dad watched, tears in his eyes. He put his arm around the mom and said, "That's arson."

What did the buffalo say to his son when he dropped him off at school? Bison.

"Dad, can you explain to me what a solar eclipse is?" No sun.

Wishing you a Happy Father's Day!
