RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

KIYOMI M.

Kiyomi was born in a Japanese relocation camp in Arizona. With 38 years of nursing under her belt, she's like a walking encyclopedia of medical knowledge—there's almost no topic she can't dive into! She's even spent her free time providing diabetic education to patients. Kiyomi also has a creative side to her as well. She used to transform the hospital floors where she worked, decorating them with handmade ornaments for Christmas. Her curiosity knows no bounds, and she loves picking up a good book to learn something new. Everyone at CityView benefits from having Kiyomi living here with us!
