Resident Spotlight

Claudette Levy

Claudette is originally from Montreal, Canada, where she worked as a French teacher. She is the second oldest of five siblings and has always valued family and the experiences that shape our lives. In March 2026, Claudette moved to Los Angeles and has enjoyed exploring her new home. She recently visited Santa Monica, where she loved watching the surfers and enjoying the ocean breeze.

Claudette believes in respecting older generations for the wisdom and life experiences they share. As a new resident at City View, we are delighted to welcome Claudette and look forward to creating many wonderful memories with her!

Employee of the Month

Melissa Ramirez

Melissa is a caring and cheerful caregiver at City View who moved to the United States from Guatemala three years ago. She loves music, dancing, and having fun! Outside of work, Melissa enjoys attending church and spending time with her loved ones. She is happy to be part of the City View community and looks forward to making many wonderful memories here.
